Book Sale for Members of the Friends

The Friends of the Library will hold their next book sale on November 10, 11 and 12 in the auditorium. The sale continues our period of time set apart for only members of the Friends of the DeLand Library to browse and purchase books.

On Thursday, November 10, from 1:00 until 3:00, before the sale opens to the public, members of the Friends will have first choice at selecting books. If your membership has lapsed, you may renew at this time, or you may join for the first time. This will give you an opportunity to browse before the sale is opened to the general public from 3:00 to 7:00.

The sale will be open to the public on Friday, November 11, from 9:30 to 4:30, and on Saturday, November 12, from 9:30 to 2:00. We have many, many books this month.

Book Discussion Group

On Friday, November 18, at 1:00, the Library Book Discussion Group will discuss Before the Fall by Noah Hawley. The story of what happened when a private jet crashed on a foggy, summer night involves much intrigue. This will be held in the library auditorium. More information is available by calling the Reference Desk at 386-822-6430, ext. 20762.

Roots & Branches Genealogical Society

Roots & Branches Genealogical Society will hold their November meeting on Sunday, November 20 at 2:00 in the auditorium. Local author, Louise Caccamise will present a power-point presentation on Helen DeLand's book, The Story of DeLand and Lake Helen, Florida. Visitors are welcome. The Local History and Genealogy room on the second floor of the library has volunteers scheduled to assist researchers during each week.

Be sure to check your Happenings Calendar for activities at the library each month. The schedule is available on-line 24/7 and in paper form at the library to take home for both children and adults.
