Book Sale for Members of the Friends

Because we are a little late with our newsletter this month due to our 4th of July holiday, we want to make sure everyone is aware that this weekend is our monthly Friends of the Library Book Sale in the auditorium. The sale continues our period of time set apart for only members of the Friends of the DeLand Library to browse and purchase books.

On Thursday, July 7, from 1:00 until 3:00, before the sale opens to the public, members of the Friends will have first choice at selecting books. If your membership has lapsed, you may renew at this time, or you may join for the first time.

This will give you an opportunity to browse before the sale is opened to the general public from 3:00 to 7:00.

The sale will be open to the public on Friday, July 8, from 9:30 to 4:30, and on Saturday, July 9, from 9:30 to 2:00. We have many books this month.

Book Discussion Group

Jane Eyre will be the topic of both the morning and evening book discussion groups in July. This novel has intrigued generations of readers as it depicts a woman's quest for freedom. Participants may also choose to read any related fiction or nonfiction. Suggestions are available on the reading schedule available at either the Circulation or Reference Desk.

The discussion groups will meet in the Library Classroom on July 13 at 10:00 and July 14 at 5:30.

Roots & Branches Genealogical Society

Roots & Branches Genealogical Society will not be holding formal meetings during July and August, but the Local History and Genealogy room on the second floor of the library has volunteers scheduled to assist researchers throughout the summer. Once you get bitten by the genealogy bug, you never recover. So it is good to know that help is always near.

DeLand Area Chess

If you are a chess player, there is an opportunity each Saturday afternoon to play at the DeLand Library at 1:00. These games have taken place for many years at the library. Newcomers are always welcome.

Happenings

Be sure to check your Happenings Calendar for activities at the library each month. The schedule is available on-line 24/7 and in paper form at the library to take home for both children and adults.

Book Store Planters

The book store has new planters outside our entrance door. We want to thank Mr. Joe Sowards, Master Gardener Coordinator at the Agricultural Center, for his donation of the potting soil for them. Carolyn Kieler, one of our book store volunteers and also a Master Gardener, assisted with the choice of plants.

Our Book Store

We would like to thank all individuals who have donated books and other materials to our Friends Book Store.

We welcome all books, magazines, puzzles, games, DVDs, CDs, books on CDs, records and other small items you wish to donate. Donations can be dropped off at the Friends Book Store, located at the northwest corner of the library, during the hours of 9:30 to 4:15, Monday through Friday. The store is also open on the Saturday of the monthly book sale from 9:30 to 1:30. Full details can be found on our website.

Volunteers

With many volunteers going on vacation, we are in need of substitutes in the Book Store. This is a great opportunity to meet new people and to be of great service to the library. Please come by the Book Store for an application. We provide training.
